Alexandria Gazette

THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 29.

"ETOP that car," cried old Mr. Nosengale, chasing a flying car up the street, the car fresh as a daisy, Mr. Nosengale badly blown, and the distance pole not a minute away.-"Stop that car!" he shouted to a distant but fleet limbed boy. "Certainly," shrieked back the obliging boy; "what shall I stop it with?"
"Tell it to hold on," shouted the abandoned passenger. "Hold on to what?" yelled the boy.

"Make it wait for me!" puffed Mr. Nosengale.
"You've got too much weight now," said the bay; "that's what's the trouble with you."-"Call the driver!" gasped the perspiring citizer; and, as the car rounded the corner and passed out of sight the mocking echoes of the obling answer came floating cheerily back: "All EDW'D. S. LEADBEATER. THOS. LEADBEATER. right; what shall I call bim.'

SALUTING LADIES .- "No gentleman" says Professor Fauning "ever gives a military salute to a lady." Well, hardly; we should say he wouldn't. The military salute varies from a simple graceful wave of the hand to three ruffles of the drum's color, trumpers sounding, the flourish and arms presented, and so on up to the President, who is entitled to a salute of twenty one guns, and "the highest honors, all standards and colors dropping, officers and troops saluting, drums beating and trumpts sounding." Now if the gentlemen of America got into the habit of raising such a racket as that every time they met a lady, it would be rather more startling than a chronic Fourth of July. Professor Fanning is correct. This sort of thing wants to be discouraged—Hawkeye.
